3.4.1 EXTENSION ACTIVITIES ARE CARRIED OUT IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD COMMUNITY, SENSITIZING STUDENTS TO SOCIAL ISSUES, FOR THEIR HOLISTIC DEVELOPMENT, AND IMPACT THEREOF DURING THE LAST FIVE YEARS.

According to the institute's vision and goal, it is highly astute about how different extension initiatives affect its students, staff, as well as the community at large and the environment. The institute is committed to supporting the local community.

The Institute regularly plans and takes part in a number of extension programs with the primary goals as

- Sensitize students about various social issues
- Contribute to community and strengthen it

The institute takes into account how all extension efforts would affect the neighborhood. The diverse social activities, and programs that the institute hosts demonstrate our dedication to operating in a responsible, techno-social manner.

The institute encourages staff and students to take part in community-based programs that address needs such as women's empowerment, education, cleanliness, and health. The students' involvement makes them aware of the social problems and difficulties that the less fortunate members of the community confront, enables them to acquire an empathic knowledge of these concerns, and facilitates their entrance into civic engagement. The institution encourages students, and staff to regularly engage with the local community for their overall growth and sustained community development through a variety of activities.

Various awareness programs/workshops/rallies/road shows/ voluntary activities with themes like Environment Day, Child Labour Day, International Yoga Day, Vanam – Manam, 75th Independence Day, Blood Donation Camp, Gender Equality program, Nutrition Day, Engineer's Day, Vaccination drive, National Unity Day, Say No to Plastic, Women's Rights, Swachh Bharat, Beti Bachao Beti Padhao, Save Girl Child, 73rd Republic Day, World Health Day etc, were organized with the support of faculty, staff, student, voluntaries and NSS unit of the institute and the local bodies, some of the events are attached below.
